I miss the summers of the 1960's and 70's when I was a little girl. I would spend time with Grandma and Grandpa canning tomatos, freezing corn and Sunday drives to get ice cream. My fondest memory was the Thanksgiving dinner when I had a loose front tooth. Well, it was so loose and I wouldn't pull it and was afraid to eat. Grandma said "Joni, let me see your tooth" I smiled at Grandma and in a flash, before I knew what had happened, she reached over I and flicked my tooth across the table, landing in the gravy! What a memory. I wish as an adult I had lived closer so that I could have spent more time with Grandma. I miss my childhood days and the amazing Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's dinner's we all had together. I was so blessed to have grown up around such an amazing special woman. I love you Grandma. You are now in heaven I am sure and have been reunited with Grandpa, Dad and Uncle Tom. Tell them I love and miss them.
