Marie has been my friend for just shy of 60 years. WE did everything together. She was the sweetest, most loyal friend a person could have. We really enjoyed our "slumber parties" with our other "sister", Mary Couchman. What am I going to do without you, my friend?

Marie was an amazing woman. I got to meet her over 25 years ago when Teresa married my brother.. Lots of laughs, tons of smiles and she loved her family above all. She will be missed by so many..
