“ Matt and Graham, I found this poem and instantly thought of you and your mom.

Your Mother, Your Angel
By Natasha Jordan

You look back on memories you forgot you had,
And at times you'll smile even though it hurts so bad.

Your mother is a special woman and no one can take her place,
You'll find a piece of mind when you remember her smiling face.

Your mother is an angel now she flies high above the rest,
and in your hearts always and forever she will be the best.

She has earned her wings and it's time for her to fly,
I know it hurts no one is ever ready to say good-bye.

She knows you do not understand and that you cry at night,
But as you finally drift off to sleep let her memory hold you tight.

She will be your guardian angel through the rest of your life,
Helping lead you on the path between what' wrong and right.

Your mother loves you so very much and her love will always remain true,
Please don't ever think for a second that your mother will forget you.

A mother's love is like no other in the whole world,
And she has the most wonderful memories of her two little boys.

She has taken them with her as she's flown away,
Up to Heaven free of pain which is her new home to stay.

So although you cannot see her and you wish she could be there,
Your mother can always hear you and your mother will always care.

A mother does not forget the two greatest loves of her life,
And she loved nothing more than being your mom and Paul's wife.

She is so proud of her family and that's in her heart to stay,
Even though she's and angel and has had to fly away.

So as you cry your tears remember your mother's love,
Being sent to you from her, from the beautiful Heaven above.

She will be there through your good times, she will be there through your bad,
She'll be there when you are happy, she'll be there when your sad.

Your mother has become and angel now, it is her time to fly,

And you will never know how bad it hurt me to watch you have to say good-bye.

“ My heart is filled with sadness on the loss of Kathy. Kathy was the best sister-in-law anyone could ask for. She welcomed me with open arms into the Lucas family. I always enjoyed family gatherings and talking with her. She was caring, funny, witty and always had the right words to comfort or inspire you. She gave me great tips on how to keep her brother in line. God has taken her under His wing to bless her with eternal peace in Heaven. She has not left us but is always in our memories and hearts. We will see her again. Love You Much, Ramona

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of the loss of Cousin Kathy yesterday. Although I had never met her face to face, we had managed to connect several years ago through our mutual interest in researching our family ancestry and found our roots intertwined in the Iowa based Ostreiko line. I remember quite vividly the opening line of her first email which caused me to smile about my new found cousin – “Dear Mike, Holy buckets!” We continued to share the successes of our family finds which also included the other not oft spoken of family relatives who had all made the journey to the United States in the hopes of a better life and began it in Iowa. We recently rejoiced when we were able to finally locate the ancestral village, Pesochoe Belarus, where our grandparents immigrated from, complete with photos and interviews. The tip of this proverbial iceberg was just being uncovered and more genealogical adventures were on the horizon as we were attempting to connect with our international relatives thru Facebook and discover as much of our heritage as we could. We always congratulated each other on the use of our special detective skills to discover these secrets. Since we were both grandparents and retirees, I included Kathy as one of the recipients of my weekly joke mailings. On multiple occasions she would reply with her appreciation of a certain joke that either managed had either caused her to spit out a sip of coffee on her keyboard or simply the one line reply of Baahhhhaaahhha. She was always quick to “like” my posted family photos and will miss her gracious comments as well. Fully understanding the progression of the terrible disease which took her life too early, I admired her spirit when she first informed me of her illness and that she was “fighting like hell” and not giving up. We had discussed with sadness of the subject as to who would be the successors our family genealogical interest in our stead and continue our efforts so as not be in vain. I can only hope that someone in the Iowa branch of the Ostreiko family (spelled Astreyko in Belarus) will step in and continue this legacy for Kathy. Our condolences to the family of Kathy, may she rest in peace – we will miss you. Mike and Gail Horback- the Michigan branch of the Senkevich/Ostreiko family.

“ Kathy was always so kind. She was a teacher with a warm heart and she touched many lives, including her colleagues. She had a smile and a quip each day and it was a joy to know her. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. - Pam (Armstrong) Vogel

“ She was one of the first teachers to take me under her wing in 1989 when I became a new teacher. We had great, deep conversations. I loved being her friend! I will miss her. Love you, Kathy!

“ I am so sorry to hear of Kathy's passing.

I had Kathy as a teacher toward the end of her career at Oskaloosa Middle School. I remember her enthusiastically theatrical presence in the classroom and for her passion for teaching.

My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

“ We lived in same end of town going to school. Her mom worked with my youngest brother when he got in high school. She was as soft and sweet as her mom. Always we giggle with delight when we saw each other after we graduated and would meet because it would be time in between our by chance visit. I considered her one of my dear friends and loved her dearly. She will always have a place in my heart.
