“ I can remember alot of things about Norman. He would go to almost any bar for a game of pool. Then some one would bet him in a game of pool saying they could beat him. well they would lose . I can also remember one 4 of july on the river . He would get in the games we all would play. romen candle fights, football games, what ever it was he was in the game . I could go on and on but I wont . I will miss you so much.
