

Allison Mae McGrann

December 4, 1972 - January 9, 2025

Allison Mae McGrann, age 52, of Albia, IA, passed away on Thursday, January 9, 2025, at her mother's home in Centerville, IA, surrounded by her family.

Allison was born on December 4, 1972, in Alexandria, MN, daughter of Jerry and Sharon (Sowers) Hatfield. She grew up attending school in Centerville and went on to Indian Hills Community College where she obtained her LPN (Licensed Practical Nurse) degree.

Allison worked as an LPN at Golden Age Care Center and Centerville Specialty Care for 32 years. After meeting her soulmate, Jim Angran, Allison and Jim built and ran Top Notch together in Albia.

Allison was very strong in her faith and attended the Lighthouse Church of the Nazarene in Moravia. She was a very selfless, loving, caring, and generous person with a servant's heart. She was truly willing to help anyone in need and was a natural caretaker. She always had a smile on her face and never knew a stranger. Allison loved being outdoors, fishing, gardening, and feeding the hummingbirds. She took pride in keeping her yard nice and tending to her flowers. She loved to decorate for the holidays, especially Christmas and Valentine's Day. She enjoyed going to auctions and was very talented with a knack for refinishing furniture. She also enjoyed going to demolition derbies and watching True Crime shows on television. She had a passion for the campaign to find Harry Milligan. Allison's true joy in life was spending time with her family, especially her daughters and grandchildren, who were everything to her.

Allison is survived by her significant other, Jim Angran; 3 daughters, Lacey (Derek) Ewing, Tori (Lathan Hughes) McGrann, Kaitlyn (Gunnar Guffey) McGrann; 2 stepchildren, Allie (Jake) Hargrave and Nate (Kennedi) Angran; 2 grandchildren, Trapper, Ryder and Allie and Jake's baby on the way; her mother, Sharon Hatfield; her siblings, Lisa (Dennis) Vestal, Deanna (David) Johnson, and Stephanie (Randy Dunlavey) Bazal; her mother-in-law, Pat Angran; brothers-in-law, Steve (Cindy) Angran and John (Lori) Angran; and her beloved dog, Gypsy Mae. Allison is also survived by several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and good friends.

Allison is preceded in death by her father, Jerry Hatfield; a sister, Dalayna Pierce; and her father-in-law, Joe "Papa Joe" Angran.

A Celebration of Allison's life will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, January 26, 2025, at the Lighthouse Church of the Nazarene in Moravia, with Pastor Terry Chapman officiating. A private family burial will be held at a later date.

A memorial has been established to Finding Harry Milligan.

Cards of condolences/memorials can be sent to Allison's family at 1711 South 18th, Centerville, IA 52544.

“ The memories I have of this girl is unmeasurable. She was joy, laughter till you about pee your pants. Just spoke with her awhile back at Albia. She hugged me so tight, and I didn't want to let her go. Always treated me like I was the best person in the world. I'm going to miss her so much, I loved her more than she could ever imagine. " Allie girl you were always the best." Kate

I met Allison in an online community we were both members of. Allison was always such a sweetheart. She was a good friend and an all around good person. I had just spoken to her a few days before she passed. She was nothing but positive and seemed more interested in talking with me about some things in my life that are going on right now rather than herself. The last thing she told me was that she wish she could give me a hug. She will be so missed by so many people. My condolences to her family and friends, and especially her partner, children, and great grandchildren. I love you, Allison. You can rest easy now. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Sharon and Lacey, although I didn't know Allison, I know how much she meant to you. It has always been apparent how much you loved her, and how blessed you were to have such a wonderful daughter and mother. My heart goes out to you as you mourn. It is my sincere hope that you find comfort and peace in the days ahead.

“ I will forever cherish our time's at the Nursing home. We knew how to have fun & our residence enjoyed there entertainment for the evening. Allison McGrann you were not only a co-worker. But you taught me to pay attention on the little details God puts in front of us. 🙏 Until we meet again 🙏 our hearts are breaking here on earth, but we know your in heaven with our heavenly Father

“ My deepest condolences and sympathy to all the family. I never met Allison in person, 4 years ago I can't even remember how it came to be but a friend of hers sold Scentsy and put it on an Albia Facebook page. I commented and Allison ended up delivering bulbs for a warmer and leaving them on my porch one day. She wouldn't let me send her a check or anything and I had no idea till later on who her sisters were.

That was my one and only crazy interaction but I told her you can't be delivering free Scentsy bulbs all over 3 counties in southern Iowa for nothing! But she insisted.

My deepest condolences and sympathy, I'd say she left an impact and as the late George Jones who said it best "who's going to fill their shoes "!
