“ Carol, thank you for letting me into these past few months of Bernard's life. I know the struggle has been hard, but the way you both faced Bernard's illness has been an inspiration to me. You both are good examples of faith filled people an that faith has touched the people around you.

“ Dear Carol and Family,
My deepest sympathy and prayers are with you at this time of your grieving the death of Bernard,
My years, as a Sister of the Humility of Mary, took me on varied assignments, yet, I treasured those occasions when I was home and your family would be present at reunions, birthdays, weddings, anniversaries or funerals of relatives.
Bernard finished the work God had for him and now, by faith, we believe his soul to be at peace in God's kingdom.
May God's strength and consolation be with all of your family today and always.
Love,
Sister Dorothy Ann

“ Carol, Mary, Lynn & Becky,

I'm so sorry to hear about Bernard's passing. I second the comments made by Mel. I can't help but remember Bernard's great sense of humor and laugh and his booming voice in church. What mostly comes to mind when remembering Bernard is his undeniable love and support for his family. I can't remember looking up from the softball field or the gym floor during a game and not seeing his smiling face. How lucky you all were to have him as a husband, father & grandfather.

“ Carol and family, just wanted to add some memories that my folks had of Bernard~At my Grandpa Mike Sullivan's funeral Mass my Mom said that she was never so happy and so sad at the same time when she heard Bernard's voice singing the hymns! Another memory of my Dad's (and mine) was hearing him sing while on his tractor in the field 1/2 mile away! His voice was awesome! They wish they could come and try to sing at his funeral, but they will be there in thought and prayer~

“ So sorry to hear of Bernard's passing. I will always think of the two of you in church and how he loved to sing the hymns. It always brought a smile to my face...he reminded me of my grandfather... he was big man who also farmed and also loved to sing.

“ To all of Bernard's family and his friends -- I'm probably the newest of his friends, and I don't take that lightly. He and I seem to hit it off right away and I liked him from the start. I grew to love him.

We had great visits together; talked of families and our younger days. When I left their home, I always felt better than when I arrived. He was a genuine, salt of the earth kinda guy.

To Carol and their kids and grandkids --- Thank you for sharing him with me.

I wish we had met 20 years ago. I will always remember him fondly and will never forget him. May God surround you with his grace in these next days; remember all the good times.

Goodbye, my friend.
