“ Dearest Jean, to your wonderful husband and sons.
There never was a better friend. To say you will be greatly missed, doesn't even touch the tip of the iceberg.
I love you, miss you already, and you will always remain in my heart and memories. My only relief is you have no more pain and are resting in the arms of Jesus.

Jay and sons, there are no words for such a time as this, whether we knew it was on the horizon or not. My deepest heartfelt sympathy to you, and know you remain in my heart and prayers. Jay, you were the best husband and caretaker in the world, we would not have had the joy of Jean this long had it not been for the loving care and support you gave to her. You truly gave your all. I will miss my talks, updates and laughs that she and I always had together. I cannot put myself in your place, but know my loss is great. Take care, and hang in there.

With loving regards,
Barb
