“ Charlotte was the long time companion of Dad, John Weir. They spent more than 20 years happily enjoying their lives and traveling with the Weir children and grandchildren. They came to Houston many times over the years for Thanksgiving. She will be missed by the entire Weir family, she made an impact on our lives.

Charlotte lived about 2 blocks south of me between Division and Sycamore. Though she was in my class, I didn't really know her well, but she lived near the start of my paper route and we would talk when I went by. She was always cheerful and fun to talk with. Strange, but about a week ago, she popped into my head (don't think that happened before) and I wondered what happened to her. Sorry, but I guess I know now.
