

Chris Alan Clough

September 10, 1951 - July 2, 2012

Chris Alan Clough, age 60 of Lovilia, passed away Monday, July 2, 2012 at Oakwood Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Albia, under the care of Hospice of Monroe County.

Chris was born September 10, 1951 in Fairfield to Carrol and Dorothy (Rose) Clough. He married Debra Kay Ross on September 21, 1996 in Centerville.

A graduate of Fairfield High School, Chris completed the wood working program at Indian Hills Community College. He was a carpenter and worked construction all of his life. Chris was known for being an exceptional wood worker.

Chris loved nature, being outdoors, fishing, gardening, and spending time with friends at the lake. He liked making humming bird feeders out of gourds, building bird houses, and walking sticks. He also enjoyed his dog, Lady Bug, and had a wonderful kinship with his granddaughter, Kaydine.

Chris is survived by his wife, Debra; four children, Ashley (Joe) Hawkins, Erin (Mark) Micetich, Denise (Justin) Eisenach, and Robert (Persephone) Crall; ten grandchildren; and siblings, Randy (Sandy) Clough, Mike (Vicki) Clough, Linda (Chuck) Klett, and Curt Clough. Chris is also survived by many nieces and nephews, and special friends, Dennis (Connie) Cochran and Jim (Marlene) Wells.

Chris was preceded in death by his parents.

Per Chris's wishes, his body has been cremated and no visitation is planned. A private graveside service will be held in Gullion Cemetery in Attica.

Memorials may be directed to Oakwood Nursing and Rehabilitation Center or Hospice of Monroe County.

“ I (Judie) remember Chris as this beautiful little boy, which we asked to be our ring bearer at our wedding. The day came (Dec. 31st '58) and it turned out to be a blizzard and the Cloughs couldn't make it from their home in Fairfield to Eddyville in Iowa. The wedding did go on, and a lot of people made it to the wedding, but I will always remember the little guy who couldn't make it to our wedding...

Bless you all who have stood at his side through all these years of illness. And to his wife, and family may God be with you through this sad time.

Our love, Bill and Judie Rose
