

Clell Donald Lewis

October 12, 1913 - October 12, 2009

Clell Donald Lewis, 96 died on October 12, 2009, at the home of his daughter, Karilyn Newll (Lewis) of Whitewater, WI. Clell was born on September 8th 1913 to Arch and Anness Lewis of rural Albia. He was a farmer and farmed all his life on a farm north of Albia in Bluff Creek Township. Clell was a active member of the National Farmers Organization. On November 10th 1943, he was united in marriage to Genevieve Arlene DeWitt. Last year, they celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. Genevieve now resides at 1155 Blackhawk Dr, Apt. 105 in Whitewater, WI. 53190

Clell enjoyed farming and taking care of his livestock. When friends and family visited a game of pitch or canasta would usually start. He also enjoyed bowling, horseshoes, and was committed to his family and community. In later years he loved mowing the lawn. He was very faithful to his rural church, North Bethel Christian. He enjoyed all aspects of helping his children in 4-H and all their endeavors.

Clell was preceded in death by his parents, Arch and Anness Lewis; six brothers, Rudolph (Doc), Guy, James (Jim), Claude (his twin brother), Clifford, Roy and three sisters, Elsie, Margorie (Marge), Francis; and one great grandchild, Taylor Lewis.

Clell is survived by his wife, Genevieve; his daughter Karilyn (Mike) Newell of Whitewater, WI. And his son, Robert Lewis of Creston, IA; three grandchildren, Blaine Lewis, Bruce Lewis, and Douglas Newell; three great grandchildren, Kelly Lewis, Sara Lewis and Max Smith.
