“ Dave was a great friend and an imposing deer hunter. When we would go deer hunting he didn't even need a gun. The deer would see this huge man coming through the woods and just lay down and play dead.

“ Dave was my very first contact with American Family Insurance back in 1984 when he was a District Manager in Ottumwa. He hired me as an agent, and got me started in my career, along with many others across Iowa over the years. We owe him a debt of gratitude.
