

Deborah Canfield Yenger

January 1, 1923 - May 25, 2013

Deborah Canfield Yenger, age 90 of Ottumwa, died Saturday, May 25, 2013, at Vista Woods Care Center in Ottumwa.

Deborah was born January 1, 1923 to Delmer and Effie Willard Canfield in Wapello County. She married Edwin Yenger January 1, 1941 in Ottumwa. They shared 45 years together before he preceded her in death February 23, 1986.

Deborah graduated from Ottumwa High School, class of 1940. She attended the Iowa Success Business School in the late 50's and worked for the Social Security Administration before retiring in the early 80's.

Deborah was a member of First Baptist Church in Ottumwa for over 60 years. She enjoyed reading, quilting, and painting. She was also an excellent seamstress.

Deborah is survived by a daughter and son-in-law, Anne and Wayne Donnelly of Albia; a granddaughter, Eva (Tory) Spiess of Ames; three great grandchildren, Audrey, Katie, and Wyatt; a sister, Roye Wilson of Stockton, CA; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; and a sister, Roseada in 1932.

As was Deborah's wish, her body has been cremated. Graveside services will be 10:30 a.m., Thursday, June 6, 2013, in Chisman Cemetery west of Ottumwa, with Pastor Henry Lippert officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Heartland Humane Society or First Baptist Church in Ottumwa.

“ What a wonderful lady she was! She and I took many a walk around the block on 2nd St. during our lunch break from work.. Of course we had to stop at Graham's for an ice cream to help us sort out the problems of the world as we walked. I miss those days, but I will always remember Debbie and her wonderful sense of humor.
