

Dorothy Lee Survis

July 3, 1946 - July 16, 2024

Dorothy Lee Survis, age 78, of Albia, passed away on Tuesday, July 16, 2024, at her home in Albia, under the care of EveryStep Hospice.

Dorothy was born on July 3, 1946, to Harold and Katheryn (Parker) McKim. She was one of sixteen children. She grew up attending school in Albia. Following school Dorothy babysat and worked at Smith's Laundry in Albia. On August 4, 1963, she married Richard "Dick" Survis. Dorothy and Dick shared 54 years of marriage prior to Dick's passing on March 27, 2017.

Dorothy and Dick moved to Burlington for a short time and then moved back to Albia where she worked at Chamberlains for two years before working at Oakwood Care Center, where she worked in housekeeping, maintenance, laundry and as a CNA. She ended her working career at the White Buffalo Hotel in housekeeping where she worked for many years. Dorothy enjoyed crocheting and putting puzzles together.

Dorothy is survived by her siblings, Alzina, Carol, Rita, Geraldine, Norma, Paul, Kathy, Eddie and Barb. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and good friends.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her husband, Dick; parents, Harold and Katheryn; and siblings, Leona, Rosie, Beverly, Harold Jr., Jerry and Diane.

Per Dorthy's request her body has been cremated with no formal services planned. A private family burial will be held at a later date.

A memorial has been established to Welcome Home Soldier Memorial.
