“ I've kind of known Dorothy for awhile now. When I was little, school was let out early and I walked to my babysitters house. They weren't home and I was locked out. Being little, in that moment that was the worst thing possible. I sat and cried, I was so scared. I saw this person raking leaves down the block. And I'll be honest, with her talk stature, short hair, flannel shirt and me being young, from far away, I thought she was a guy. So with all my little scared to death bravery, I cried my way across the street and asked her for help. We discovered she worked with my grandma klicker! So we went in her mom's house and while she got ahold of my grandma, she gave me a snack and turned on some cartoons and we waited together. From that day on, she has been known as the lady who "saved my life". ❤️

“ Oh my! So sad to see this, but blessed to have known Dorothy. I've been gone from Blakesburg quite awhile now, so I was excited when she friended me on Facebook! She was so supportive early in my career as I worked in Blakesburg as a young 6th grade math teacher. I would call when Jeff didn't have his math assignment done and ask if I could keep him after school. I told her he was a bright boy, but he just wasn't cooperating with me. After several times she replied, "Sure, go ahead and keep him, but you just dont get it do you? He WANTS to stay after school with you!" Ha! That never entered my mind. I thought the kid hated me! Jeff, I have always hoped Dorothy was right and I was wrong! What a neat lady! Prayers to your family!! Love, Robin Fletcher
