“ To Bud and family: I always felt such fondness for Beth in talking to her and watching her with her children and family. She had a kind and generous heart and was a good mother and caring friend. I have never forgotten her and never will. I had no idea when I saw you this summer that Beth was struggling with a serious illness. I was just so happy to see you! I send prayers and blessings to you and the children. They are wonderful kids. I know Beth will continue to be missed, but will still be watching out for all of you from heaven.

“ Beth Ann was a very special lady. We grew up together and went to church together. Her family was like my extended family. I was in the same graduating class as her Brother Rodney. Beth Ann and I went to church camp together for two years, and were roommates. I loved her like a sister. Years have passed but she was so many times in my thoughts of happy memories. Last time I seen her was when Nathan passed. Beth you will be forever be in my wonderful memories.

“ Joan, Rod, Ron, and Lydia,
We are so sorry to hear of Beth's passing. It was a surprise to us to hear. (We had heard from Ron that she had cancer when he came up.) We were hoping that God would hold it at bay. But she will not suffer anymore. May God wrap you in his arms and comfort you through this tough time. This is especially such a tough time of year to loss a loved one.

“ Bud & Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Beth was a good friend to me and I will treasure her memory. Bud, I know that God will take care of you and your family. Mom also sends her love and prayers.
Love all of you and hope to see you sometime.
Sincerely, Cammy Kirkman Ward

“ This poem was shared at a funeral I attended yesterday. I am certain it applies to Elizabeth and I hope it is helpful to you.

*I see the countless Christmas trees
Around the world below,
With tiny lights like heaven's stars
Reflecting in the snow.*

*The sight is so spectacular
Please wipe away that tear
For I'm spending Christmas
With Jesus Christ this year.*

*I hear the many Christmas songs
That people hold so dear
But earthly music can't compare
With the Christmas choir up here.*

*I have no words to tell you
The joy their voices bring
For it's beyond description
To hear the angels sing.*

*I know how much you miss me,
Trust God and have no fear
For I'm spending Christmas
With Jesus Christ this year.*

*I can't tell you of the splendor
Or the peace here in this place.
Can you imagine Christmas
With our Savior, face to face?*

*May God uplift your spirit
As I tell Him of your love
Then pray for one another*

As you lift your eyes above.

*So let your hearts be joyful
And let your spirits sing
For I'm spending Christmas in Heaven
And I'm walking with the king!*

“ Elizabeth and I have been friends since Junior High and will be friends well into eternity. I will be expecting to see her again someday and her beautiful smile. No one that is loved is ever lost...no one who has touched a life, who has brought beauty to the world is ever truly gone. Those we cherish will always live on in our hearts and memories. Until we meet again Beth...God Bless

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Elizabeth was such a wonderful sweet person and I know she will be welcomed in to heaven. I'm sure she was a wonderful mother and grandmother who will be greatly missed by all her family. She is in Jesus arms now and will not suffer any longer. May God Bless your entire family at this time and always.....
