“ One of the first women I met at my Mary Kay meeting in 1990 when I decided to sign, Liz has been a pillar in our unit area for so long. Events won't be the same with her clicking her camera and making sure everyone looked their best.

I agree with Kathy Allen. I met Liz when I first signed in 2008. She has been a special part of our unit as well as a special friend and helped everyone in any way she could. Her presence and beautiful smile will be greatly missed.

Liz was what I considered a Classy lady! She was an encourager, teacher, and cheerleader for us at Kohls! Her smile could brighten a shift.

Cancer took her way to early. Thoughts and Prayers to All the family and friends.
