

Esther Amoss

April 2, 1927 - August 19, 2010

Esther "Darlene" Amoss, age 83, of Albia, passed away on Thursday, August 19, 2010, at the Monroe County Hospital in Albia.

Darlene was born April 2, 1927, in Marion County, Iowa, to John Henry and Mildred Victoria (Spaur) Marlin. Darlene attended and graduated from Albia High School Class of 1944. After school Darlene married Lawrence "Plute" Amoss on January 20, 1946 at the United Brethren Church in Albia. They were blessed with fifty-nine years of marriage and two children, Denny and Delores before Plute passed away in 2006.

Darlene worked as a waitress at Darlene's Caf  before she went to work at Chamberlain Manufacturing Company, working in the shipping and receiving department.

Darlene was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women both of Albia. She volunteered time to help with 4-H. She enjoyed reading, ceramics, watching T.V., traveling, and spending winters in Texas. She also enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, especially with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Darlene is survived by her children, Dennis Amoss and his wife Karen of Albia, and Delores Johnson and her husband Mike of Monroe; four grandchildren, William and Brian Johnson, Troy Amoss, and Lynnette Major; twelve great grandchildren, Kenzie, Kolten, Drew, David Lawrence, Evan, Brock, Shay, Trell, Austin, Allison, Avery, and Aubrey. Darlene is also survived by four sisters, Hazel Baker, Joan Beary, Kay DeVos, Jayne Hughell; three brothers, John, Wayne, and Donnie Marlin.

Darlene is preceded in death by her parents, John and Mildred; and her husband, Lawrence "Plute" Amoss, her brother-in-law Jim Baker, and Leland Bettis, and sister-in-law June Gutcher and her husband Tom.

A memorial has been established to Hospice of Monroe County or to Trinity United Methodist Church of Albia.
