“ Oh.. Guy Weldon..where do start with memories. I could start from the first call you gave me when I lived in Attica or the few concerts we went too. One you had to carry me out on your shoulders because I was a drunk fool. You always been a special person to me and always will. My heart breaks hearing your passing. I won't be there to celebrate your life because I did that move I always talked about to Illinois. But I will be celebrating your me memories always in my heart. I pray your family finds peace and your poor babies find comfort and peace as well. Fly high buddy and know these great memories will always be in my heart and thank you for that. Till we meet again R.I.P. xoxox
