

Hal Miller

August 7, 1948 - February 2, 2010

Hal Miller, age 61, of Lovilia, died Tuesday morning, February 2, 2010, in his home in Lovilia.

Hal was born August 7, 1948, in Des Moines, Iowa to Francis "Fritz" and Lavona (Born) Miller. Hal grew up, attended, and graduated High School in Bradgate, Iowa. He attended Iowa State University "GO CYCLONES!" Then he moved to Lovilia in 1970. Hal married Wilma Darden in Missouri on August 8, 1980. Hal was a farmer all of his life and worked at the Martin Marietta Durham Rock Quarry as an end loader operator.

Hal enjoyed farming, gardening, being outdoors, camping, and reading. Hal also loved to laugh and spending time with family and friends. He loved animals especially his dog Daisy.

Hal is survived by his wife, Wilma of Lovilia; parents, Francis and Lavona of Woodward; three daughters, Shawn Sisler and her husband Scott of Albia, Theresa Anderson and her husband Bill of Albia, and Bonnie Rankin and her husband Steve of Bussey; 9 grandchildren, Cade, Casey, and Chandler Sisler, Mason and Tristin Long, Hanna, and Lilly Anderson, Gaige, and Carson Rankin. Hal is also survived by one sister Liz Cramer and her husband Jim of Iowa City.

Hal is preceded in death, by his grandparents

A Memorial has been established to the Albia Public Library.

“ *Dear Wilma and family,
Telling you how sorry I am, does not nearly express my thoughts. Hal was a very special guy and all of us who ever worked with him, knew how special he was. He always tried to make our jobs easier if he could.
Please know you are on my heart and in my prayers. Hal will always hold a special place in my mind, as a great end-loader operator and friend. I'm in Florida and cannot attend the memorial service, but my thoughts and prayers are with you. Phyllis*
