He later attended the Monroe County Professional Management Day Habilitation program where he made many friends and participated in group community outings and many enjoyable activities. Harlon loved his recliner at home where he liked to watch television, especially Popeye. He loved when others would sing "You Are My Sunshine" and "Popeye the Sailor Man" to him. Harlon had a great appetite and a love for food. Harlon was a very pleasant man who was loved by all those who surrounded him.
