“ I just found out today that Jay passed away. He was a founding member of our fraternity at Young Harris College and we appreciated the contribution he made. The fraternity still exists today and his memory lives on as a founding father. Brother you are missed.

Jay was always a very kind person. He had a good heart and I was proud to call him one of my fraternity brothers. I'm sorry that I had lost touch with him over the last years. He is missed by many.

Jay was one of my pledge brothers. I grew very close to Jay during that time but regretfully, lost touch with him after school. You will be missed my friend!

“David promised to build me wooden shelves years ago for flowers. Jason was visiting, so he helped. Dave had to go to work; Jason finished the shelves. I still grow flowers on them. Such a sweet guy and good friend to my son.
