

Jeanne Ann (Comstock) Giroux

August 8, 1959 - March 3, 2024

Jeanne Ann (Comstock) Giroux, 65, of Palmetto, Florida, passed away Sunday March 3, 2024, at Manatee Memorial Hospital in Bradenton, Florida after sustaining a heart attack in her home. As were her wishes, she will be cremated and a Celebration of Life Service for her friends will be held later and will be announced.

She now resides in heaven with her sister Kathy Evans and five brothers: Jim, Jerry, Dennis, Joe, and Mike Comstock. Waiting to greet her at the gate were her dad, Robert Comstock and mom, Lorraine (Tice) Comstock along with nephews Garrison, Alex, Jonus, Jerry Joe, Tommy, her niece Delayne, her great niece Abby and numerous Uncles and Aunts, Grandparents, and friends. Jeanne is survived by her husband Patrick (Frenchie) Giroux; brothers John Comstock, of Albia, Jeff Comstock, and Milo Comstock, both of Lovilia; sisters Barb Comstock, of Lovilia, Mary Roberts, of Victor, and Marla Clement, of Natural Bridge, N.Y.; and many nieces and nephews.

Jeanne Ann Comstock was born August 8, 1959, to Robert and Lorraine Josephine (Tice) Comstock in Albia. She grew up in Lovilia, graduating from Albia High School. Jeanne received her RN degree from Indian Hills Community College and spent her Nursing career in service to others until she retired.

She moved to the sunshine state after graduating because she hated the cold and loved the sun. She married Patrick Giroux on 10/27/2007. She then lived in Tampa/St. Petersburg for years before moving to Palmetto, where she lived for the remainder of her life. Jeanne enjoyed the sun, beach, and loved spending time with her husband and her dog Botchie. She loved her birds of all kinds, chickens, Parakeets and cockateels. Jeanne was loved and respected by her family, friends and community and will be dearly missed. Memorial contributions can be made in Jeanne's name to the Palmetto Fire Department and Manatee Memorial Hospital.
