“ Jeremy as a small young boy had many health issue's, we prayed and worried about the many and seemed liked constant health issues for such a young boy to have to deal with and battle the tubes and machines and trips to Iowa city .. He obviously grew up as a fine and kind spirited young man .. having a family of sport's and both his loving brothers playing sports though out their growing up years... Jeremy wasn't into that and preferred the outdoors and GOD'S created nature ... always seeing Jeremy, just his presence had a radiant LOVE and a caring heart for his loved one's and friends .shocking and sad news and yet as faithful followers of JESUS Christ , eternal life in heaven is the ultimate destination for us all , and Jeremy has arrived and loving faces were their to greet him and welcome him to God's palace +++ we PRAY for Dave and Wanda and Bill and everyone else who were a huge asset and part of Jeremy's life for 43 years of life and living , he will be missed but never forgotten !!!
