“ Kareen, Joe and Carol. My heart breaks for you. Wish I could be there with you but my driving buddies were all busy and I didn't feel comfortable driving alone. Seeing Joe so healthy on Thanksgiving makes this so hard to grasp what has happened. Sending love and prayers to all the family. Kareen, I will call you when you have had a chance to get rested.

“ I was fortunate to have met Joe in college and become friends for the four years there. I remember playing basketball and playing golf with him. Unfortunately he never could find clubs that were his size and it sometimes looked uncomfortable but he still had fun. He also convinced me to join a gym for 8 months. He was just 180 lbs dripping wet and I was a short fat kid dripping sweat. But what I remember most was Joe was just Joe. His personality was just easy going and fun and he was a guy that you like hanging out with. I always enjoyed the times we had.

To the Heffron family I want to give you my condolences with a heavy heart. Even though I hadn't spoken to him in years, I knew Joe as a good person but I'm sure after college he became so much more. With that it includes the titles he always will be (Son, Friend, Husband and Father)

“ I had the honor of getting to work with Joe the last few years. Working with Joe was exciting! He could literally walk into a room full of strangers and within seconds have everyone’s full attention and respect. Joe had a charisma about him that made you feel extremely comfortable to talk to, ask questions to, and trust in. There was just something about Joe that kept you eager to hear and learn more. Besides being a great teacher/mentor to the team, his sense of humor was tremendous. He had a big voice, big smile, and even bigger laugh that we all enjoyed each day he came to work. His attitude and approach towards people and life in general was something we should all strive to emulate. Joe buddy, you will be missed. We enjoyed working, laughing, and learning from you!

“ I worked with Joe for the past few years. His knowledge was greatly utilized at Wacker. He was genuinely interested in the process, which had a trickle down effect with the people he worked with to be engaged and focused on improvement. He was always pushing to test the boundaries of how hard and how fast we could run the plant. He learned that from his Cargill days, and he had the “let it eat” mentality.

Besides work, I will remember Joe as a family man who loved Carol and Cy more than anything. I'll remember our conversations about life, business, and family. I'll remember playing “Farkle” with the guys and Joe saying “show me the money” every time he rolled the dice.

RIP Joe. I'll miss seeing you around.
