“ I went to school with Kenny. He always smiled and was sincere when he asked “how are you doing”? We kept in touch on Facebook and I laughed at his smart aleck comments. We had known each other so long that he knew how to push my buttons! He was so kind as to fix me up with one of his college pals - that turned out bad but I appreciated his thoughtfulness!
He was always laughing and joking , but also caring about his friends. He had lifelong buddies because of that! Me being one. No other time had I seen him so happy .when he married Cindy and started a family with her. I am sending prayers of peace to her and her family. I will miss his goodness. Rest in heavenly peace, my friend.

“ I have such great memories of visiting aunt Barb and all the kids. We enjoyed so many family reunions at the Albia Park. Kenny had the best laugh! I know his family is sitting around the table playing cards and listening to his laugh. My deepest sympathy to Cindy and the rest of his family. You're in my prayers.
