

Kyle Daniel Walker

May 4, 1989 - July 3, 2013

Kyle Daniel Walker, age 24 of Albia, passed away Wednesday, July 3, 2013, at his home in Albia.

Kyle was born May 4, 1989 to Dan and Melinda (Frye) Walker in Ottumwa. He was a graduate of Albia Community High School, class of 2007.

Kyle enjoyed playing video games, collecting knives, building model cars, listening to music, and was extremely talented with computers and electronics. He liked being outdoors, hunting and fishing, working on cars, and spending time with his family. Kyle had a big heart and was willing to help anyone. He was a loving father to his two children, Kreighten and Kemry, and had a special spot in his heart for his little brother, Austin.

Kyle is survived by his children, Kreighten Daniel and Kemry Jo Walker; his fiancée and mother of his children, Heather Kramer of Albia; parents, Melinda (James) Stewart and Dan (Shelly) Walker, both of Albia; siblings, Curtis and Corey Walker, and Austin Stewart; step siblings, Roger Stewart, Tiffinie Spaur, and Shannon (Marty) Wilson; and grandparents, Bob and Jean Frye and Marian Walker. He is also survived by his aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and several cousins.

Kyle was preceded in death by his grandfather, Roland Walker; and two uncles, Bob and Ronald Frye.

Funeral services will be 10:30 a.m., Monday, July 8, 2013, at First Christian Church in Albia, with Pastor Lynda Carlson officiating. Burial will be in Selection Cemetery in rural Albia.

Visitation will be 11 a.m., Sunday, July 7, 2013, at Tharp Funeral Home in Albia, with Kyle's family present from 5-8 p.m.

A memorial has been established to the family for Kyle's children.

“ Kyle was a great helper for me and his great grandmother when we were farming. Kyle and I would take turns running the the weed eater clearing weeds to put up electric fence. Kyle and Corey came to visit their great grandmother on her birthday, which she greatly appreciated. Kyle was so good to us, a joy to be around. It is so sad that his children won't get to know their father. Condolences to the families.
