“ *LaDean was an incredible lady. I read the word Spunk to describe her.... I agree. SHE HAD SPUNK. She was a wonderful mother...later became a single parent. She worked at Banquet Foods and there was so well loved and recognized for that spunk.... the people that she worked with wanted her to be their Union President. She cared for people and wanted fairness for everyone. I loved going to her home and visiting. She had this incredible wit..... that she shared with all of her boys. Sitting at their kitchen table and listening to how they would go at each other... always left us laughing so hard..... we cried.....
I will always remember this great lady.*

“ My condolences to LaDean's family. LaDean was a very kind lady I remember from my childhood. Her and her family purchased the country schoolhouse on Route W in Unionville, MO and converted it into a residence when her children were small. I attended country school there in first grade before it closed. Her oldest son was much younger than me but we rode the same school bus to Unionville school. I am saddened to find he has passed as well. The two younger boys were so cute. I would see them as their older brother would get on or off the bus. It's ironic my husband mentioned to me LaDean Lloyd of Albia, IA died, someone he didn't know. I recognized the unique name and after checking this out realized it was indeed the same lady I was acquainted with from my childhood. I had lived on Route W in Unionville, MO also through eight grade in school. I now reside in Albia, IA as well. I wish I had known sooner LaDean resided here and could have visited and perhaps reminisced with her. She loved her boys! She is being buried at a very pretty country cemetery (Lipp Cemetery) where I just visited for Memorial Day where my step-mother is also buried. It is indeed a small world in many instances. I will make it a point to visit LaDean's grave and do more reminiscing the next time I am at the Lipp. Again, very heartfelt condolences to her loved ones. Jana Lee (Anders) Simmons.

Omgoodness I never knew that their house use to be a school! That would explain the schoolyard sized playground equipment in their yard. I loved Ladean. She was one of the most inspiring ladies on the planet.
