“ We had the privilege of seeing Bev and Len come into the truth. Their example was so encouraging to us because of their steadfast devotion to Jehovah. We also enjoyed being good friends and taking trips with them like Acapulco and Cozumel as well as New Orleans (even when a hurricane was following us home). We will look forward to seeing Len in the paradise and enjoying his pleasant company again. Our thoughts and prayers are with Bev at this most difficult and will pray for her daily. Love you so much!.....Greg & BB
