

Levi Ward Miller

August 26, 1991 - October 11, 2010

Levi Ward Miller passed away on Monday afternoon, October 11, 2010 surrounded by his family at UIHC in Iowa City, after a long battle with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.

Levi was born August 26, 1991 to Dennis "Denny" and Nancy (Bonnett) Miller in Pella, Iowa. Levi attended Twin Cedars Community Schools. He graduated on May 16, 2010 and was taking classes at Indian Hills Community College. Levi was a computer gamer, Hawkeye football fan, sci-fi fanatic, U.S. military war and history junky, and food network junky, getting mom to try new recipes. Some of Levi's favorite TV shows were Big Bang Theory, NCIS, NCIS:LA, Stargate SG-1, Stargate Universe, Hawaii-5-0, and Burn Notice. He loved his family, especially all of the little cousins that would sit on his lap and try to drive his chair and his cats and doogs. Levi enjoyed watching the Hawkeyes, Sooners and Steelers play football, vintage Mopar muscle cars, especially the Challenger, Charger, and Cuda.

Levi is survived by his parents Dennis and Nancy Miller of Bussey; one sister Nicole (Laremy) DeGroot of Rose Hill; grandparents Ward and Arlene Bonnett of Bussey, Ila Miller of Urbandale; and his great grandmother Vera Wilkins of Mount Ayr.

Levi was preceded in death by his brother Zachary Miller; and grandfather Everett Miller.

A Celebration of Life will be at 10:00A.M., Thursday, October 14, at the Trinity United Methodist Church in Albia, with Pastor Dale Schoening officiating.

Burial will follow services at Pringle Cemetery of rural Bussey.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday at the Winfield Funeral Home in Albia from 5:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M., with Levi's family present.

“ Nancy and Denny,

I was very sad to hear of Levi's death. I like to think that this life is just the beginning, and once it is over, there is more of what we always wanted but couldn't have in this one in the next one.

Sending prayers of comfort and peace to your family, and be sure that Levi would want you all to be happy and remember him with love and smiles, not tears.
