“ *Keith, Kellie, Scott - My heart aches over your loss of your beloved wife and mom. What an awesome woman she was. I can hardly remember ever seeing her without a smile on her face. She was always so fun and funny and I am so blessed to have known and loved her. I am praying for all of you. You have so many great memories of this fabulous woman - I pray that you will find peace in that. May you feel God's presence and love as you move through the difficult days ahead.
