It was October, 1988 -my wedding day to my Husband John. The evening was amazing with lots of cold beverages to celebrate our wedding. Well.....Lisa decides her and I needed to go uptown to the bars (me in my wedding dress and veil!) We came back a couple of hours later lol. What a fun, loving person she was. Everyone will miss her, saying prayers for her Sandi and Charlie as well as her children and Grandchildren. Fly high up in heaven and know you have God's Grace. xoxo love you.

“ Lisa was an amazing woman, I've known her for most if not all my life. I loved watching her cut my boys' hair and watching her tease then and get them almost too wound up to sit still for their haircuts! I loved her advice and her willingness to listen to me vent about whatever craziness life was throwing out that day. My heart goes out to her family.
