Madlyn Almond

Madlyn Almond, age, 84, of Albia, died Thursday February 14, 2008, at the Monroe County Hospital in Albia, Iowa.

Madlyn was born December 20, 1923 to Lawrence and Lydia (Engstrom) Bates in Avery, Iowa. Madlyn attended Albia Schools. She married John Almond, January 19th 1964 in Lancaster, MO.

Madlyn worked for several years at the North End Grocery store. In 1954 she went to work and was trained as an x-ray technician and a lab technician.

Madlyn was the supervisor for both departments until the new hospital was built. When the new hospital was built, she was the supervisor for the x-ray department. She was the supervisor for the department for thirty years before retiring in the early 1980's. After retiring she enjoyed volunteering at the Monroe County Helping Hands. Madlyn also enjoyed watching horse racing, and Hawkeye basketball and football.

Madlyn was preceded in death by her parents, Lawrence and Lydia (Engstrom) Bates, her husband John Almond; one son James Almond; two brothers Gerald and Kenneth Bates; one sister Geraldine Ditterline.

Madlyn is survived by her children; Karen Johannes of Albia, Jerry and his wife Gwen Almond of Duncan, SC. Madlyn is also survived by 7 grandchildren; and 9 great grandchildren, and one sister Linda Whitlock of Albia.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00P.M., Sunday, February 17, 2008, at the Winfield Funeral Home in Albia, with Rev. Lynda Carlson officiating. Burial follow services at Oak View Cemetery in Albia.

Visitation will begin one hour prior to service time on Sunday at the Winfield Funeral Home, with the family present.

Memorials may be given to Helping Hands of Monroe County.
