

Margaret Rossetta Keyes Smith

November 9, 1930 - February 27, 2010

Margaret Rossetta Keyes Smith, age 79, of Albia, formerly of Hampton, Ill, passed away Saturday evening, February 27, 2010, at her residence in Albia. Margaret was born on November 9, 1930 to Clarence and Margaret I. Summers in Afton, Iowa.

Margaret married John T. Keyes in 1947. They were married for 42 years before John died in September of 1989. Margaret later married Donald Smith in 1990. He passed away in 1999.

Margaret worked in a retail shoe store, a feather factory, and a box factory before her and John moved to Hampton, Illinois. While living in Hampton she worked at a greenhouse and later F.W. Means until she retired.

Margaret was very active all her life. She enjoyed bingo, traveling, fishing, camping, and gambling. She had a passion for collecting dolls, and dedicated one room in her house to doll collecting.

Margaret is survived by five children, Connie and Ivan Wilcox of Hampton, Ill; Jody and Michael Loveall of Albia; Natalie Clark and Jack of Albia; Kimberly and Scott Maher of Hampton, Ill; and Rodney and Janet Keyes of Eddyville; 12 grandchildren; and 6 great grandchildren. Margaret is also survived by two sisters, Lori Keiffer of Hampton, Ill; and Vonnie Christy of Albia; two brothers, Jim Summers and Joe Summers both of Albia.

Margaret is preceded in death by her parents; both of her husbands, John T. Keyes and Donald Smith; two sons, Jeffrey and Johnny Keyes; and one great grandchild. She is also preceded by three brothers, Irvin, Kenny, and Clarence

"Shag" Summers; and two sisters, Evelyn Rhinehart and Mary Smith.
A memorial has been established to Hospice of Monroe County.

“ Margie always made my father and I feel welcome and comfortable whenever we visited her home. She was one of the nicest ladies anyone could have known. I feel very sad that she's gone, but I will always have fond loving memories.

*God Bless
Rest In Peace
Love Richard*
