“ My heart breaks for the entire family at the loss of Marina. She was such a kind woman and she always had a smile. I think of the wedding we attended of her son Eric ... she was so happy and having such a wonderful time. I am sad that she has lost her battle at such a young age with so many things left to see and do. The grandchildren she won't get to see grow up. But she will be your Heavenly Angel showering love from above now and will keep watch over you all. GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

“ Dear Family,
My heart was broken when I learned of Marina's passing. She was such a wonderful woman -- she took care of my elderly mother - washed her hair, gave her manicures, talked w/her and they laughed together often. Marina was such a great friend to our family and we will all miss her dearly. God's Blessing to each and every one of you.

“ Dave, Tony, Eric, Shirley, Kathy Marty and Calvin and all your families, we are saddened by Marina's painful ending. She is no longer suffering but you will continue to do so. Time will heal but none of us will forget.
I'm looking at her smiling face and crying. From all of the messages she touched many lives and left good memories.
God bless you all.
