

Mary Jo Courtney

October 6, 1950 - July 10, 2011

Mary Jo Courtney, age 60, of Albia died Sunday, July 10, 2011 at Oakwood Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Albia.

Mary Jo was born in Cedar Rapids, IA on October 6, 1950. Prior to moving to Albia, Mary Jo lived in Tacoma, Washington. She later graduated from Albia High School. She attended the Hiteman Methodist Church and then joined Trinity United Methodist Church in Albia, where she sang in the choir and played the Accordion. She worked at Chamberlains making doors, windows, and ladders. While working at Chamberlains, Mary Jo lived with her grandparents, Tom and Elizabeth Ryan, in a coal mining camp in Hiteman.

She enjoyed her stuffed animals, music, and doing word searches.

Mary Jo is survived by a younger brother and cousins, and is preceded in death by her grandparents.

Visitation will be held from 10 AM until 12:00 PM (noon) on Thursday, July 14, 2011 at Tharp-Winfield Funeral Home with a graveside service to follow at Oak View Cemetery in Albia.

Condolences may be sent to www.tharpfh.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Jo Courtney

January 30, 2023 at 05:06 AM

“ Mary Jo Courtney

January 30, 2023 at 02:53 AM

“ I wish I had known her better. My day just got a little sadder.

Nick Courtney - Dubuque, IA - Nephew - November 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM