“ Sorry to hear about Aunt Mary. So glad I had stopped and seen her at the nursing home several months ago. Will always remember her as a great Aunt. Always so kind and a happy lady. I know her brothers Tim and Alois loved her very much and always looked after their younger sister. Jack and I always enjoyed our visits to Albia to visit her and Uncle Gene. Will miss her. What a terrific family they had. Now they are all together in heaven having a big reunion. They always had such good times together the two brothers and sister and their spouses. Love to the entire family, my thoughts and prayers are with you.. Just found out about your Mother's passing, I would have come but was out of the country. I am so sorry.

“ I remember seeing Mary outside with her little dog and talking with her many times, both of us behind our fences. She was always friendly and cheerful and I liked having her for a neighbor.
