“ I remember Maude (and Sam) as great neighbors when I was young. They were like another set of grandparents to me and my brother. They always got us a nice gift at Christmas, like a stroller and I think they gave my brother the drum set! I remember seeing Maude at Woolworth's a lot too. She was always smiling and had that silly laugh. Thanks, Maude, for being such a special person in my life. RIP

“ My sister Carol Athey and brother Richard Lane (Gladys (Mahin) Lane children) send our condolences. We think back to all the Mahin reunions and the great times we had growing up and visiting with the Colwell family. Always enjoyed Maude and Sam. Sorry to learn of her passing.
