“ In Loving Memory Of My Son Michael Anthony Townsend 1-30-1985 to 2-8-2017

Don't ask me why

Don't ask me why, I'll start to cry. Just sitting here to calm my fears, no way to know how to let you go. As you ask why, I begin to cry. Don't ask me why I want to die, don't ask me why I should even try. I find me wondering through the night, searching for the final light. Don't ask me why, I'll start to cry. The clouds have cleared and the pain aside, I treasure your love and keep it inside. Your time has come, and your fears aside. Just look in my eyes and you will see you inside. For the love we share we can not hide, don't ask me why, I start to cry. Now your on your way and can not stay, I just don't know how to let you go. Your my life and I love you so. Don't ask me why I'll start to cry. Don't ask me why I think I'll cry, I look your way and you've gone away. I don't know why, I think I'll die, you took my heart, and it fell apart, I don't know why, I think I'll cry. I passed you by and start to cry, not knowing why you had to die. Don't ask me why, I'll start to cry.

I love and miss you Michael with all my heart and strength

“ So sorry to hear about Michael. I totally enjoyed getting to know him as a student at WPU. He was always willing to share his experiences in class and I thought he had a great future. I enjoyed hearing about his family and how maybe we could get him playing golf again.

“ I meet mikey on a hot summer day in 1999 walking down a lonely highway just north of blakesburg I offered a ride he took me up i dropped him off at a house 9 miles south of were I found him .I asked no questions. The next day I found mikey the next day walking the same road . I pulled over and asked wtf. He told me he was walking to a girl's house . I asked were he lived. 10miles north of blakesburg. That fool was walking 19miles to see a girl... I had to tag along . I gave him a ride every day we had a ton of fun and alot of trouble . I miss you brother . I hope to find him again one day.

“ My sincerest condolences to Michael's family. I was able to get to know Michael through Career Services at William Penn University, and talked to him at length on a trip to Sioux City for an Interview Day in which he participated. Michael was rightfully proud of working toward his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and of his service to his country, but most of all his love for his wife and children shone through in his conversations with me. I will truly miss Michael. Debbie Stevens

“ With a heavy heart and sadness we are truly sorry for your loss. Mikey was our brother, maybe not by blood, but a military bond not many understand. He will be missed but his memory will live on. We are here for you and the kids so if you need anything don't hesitate to ask...

Ashley Clark - February 10, 2017 at 06:24 AM

“ My heart is so heavy . It doesn't seem real. I just can't believe you're gone. You weren't blood but you are our family. I am so deeply saddened, thinking of what you must have been going through. I am so sorry. Mikey, you will never ever be forgotten brother. I am so glad to have been able to share my graduation with you and the family. Thank you for opening up your home for my sister too. I will never forget your funny and goofy spirit and your loving heart. My sweet sister, Jo, my heart is breaking for you and the kids. I can't even begin to imagine what you are going through. You know that we are here for you, always...if you need anything. We Love you all, with all our hearts.
