

Patricia Ann Bettis

November 20, 1945 - October 10, 2009

Patricia A. Bettis, age 63 of Albia, Iowa, died Saturday, October 10, 2009, at the University Hospital in Iowa City, Iowa.

Patty was born in Huntsville, Missouri on November 20, 1945, the daughter of Ralph and Maggie (Wilson) Goff. She married Phillip Thomas on November 21, 1963 in Albia, Iowa. Later she married Ronald Bettis in Albia on April 7, 1989.

Patty worked as a professional dry waller and painter in the Albia area. She enjoyed many activities over her lifetime. She loved pond fishing, mushrooming and raising a large garden. She wanted to stop at every garage sale or flea market she passed. What brought her the most joy was spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Patty was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Maggie; both her husbands, Phillip and Ronald; an infant son; a step-daughter, Rhonda Bettis; two sisters, Patsy Roebuck and Bonnie Burkiett; and one brother, Russell Goff.

She is survived by two children, Bill Thomas and Cindy Thomas; five grandchildren, Stacey (McKim) Baucom, Doug McKim, Molly McKim, Brandon Thomas, and Kelsey Thomas; and four great grandchildren, Donovan, Isaiah, Seth, and Olivia Baucom. Patty is also survived by three sisters, Gracie DeMoss of Avery, Brenda Ryan of Melrose, and Margaret Pyle of Albia; three brothers, Donald and Ralph Goff of Orlando, Florida, James Goff of Converse, Indiana; and one brother-in-law, John Bettis of California.

Diane & Phil Whitson - October 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Margaret, We are very sorry for the loss of your sister and hope you and your family can find comfort in the fact that she can now be at peace, free from any pain and trials she may have gone through while here on this Earth. We will be thinking of you and hoping God finds a way to ease your pain in the months ahead.
