“ What a beautiful picture of Patty!! I am so glad I got to see her in August when I came back for our high school luncheon. Several of us "girls" went over to visit with her since she was too ill to attend the luncheon. What a sweet person she was and a blessing to all of us. She will be singing in the heavenly choir on this Christmas Day! What a joyous occasion for her!

“ Pat could really tell funny stories, and she loved to laugh. I remember times when we laughed so hard and for so long that we forgot what we were laughing about. I also think about Pat's faith in God, and how right now she is enjoying laughter in paradise. She (no doubt) will have some great stories to tell me when I see her again. Miss you girl, love you. “ Patty and I shared a love of music. I was excited and proud when she went to Nashville for the recording. I remembering thinking I could write songs and Patty could sing them. I never followed through with my part, but Patty did. She could SING! We also shared a special day. We were both born on May 24th. Patty would send me a birthday card for many years. I always think of her on our birthday and will continue to do so. Aunt Mary, Cathy, Steve, Greg, Betsy, and Tim, spouses, and all the children, I send you love and peace. Patty will be caroling with Choirs of Angels.

“ Patty & I went to school together in Hiteman, graduating from 8th grade together ...she sang a spiritual at graduation called "HE" which I can still hear today and brings tears to my eyes. She & I went to sign up for high school that fall and she had to stop to visit her cousin Larry in the hospital and she introduced us....that was over 50 years ago and we are still together, "thanks" Patty. We love you Patty and will miss you but now we know you are at rest and no longer suffer from so much pain. Jeanne & Larry

“ Patty was a good friend and classmate. I always remember how I had to practically drag her kicking and screaming to join the glee club at ACHS. Believe it or not, she was terrified to sing alone for Mrs. Schindler, our music teacher. But, once she started singing, there was no stopping her....and what a beautiful voice she had! She was a great gal, and she will be sadly missed by the many whose lives she touched over the years. Love You Patty ~ Karen

“ I have way too many memories to share. She started my love of music. She introduced me to Pasty Cline and I have been hooked since. She was always there to listen and offer advice. When my mom had back surgery she took the time to come and stay with us to make sure that we were taken care off. She would pick us up from school everyday and take us to Wooley's to get frozen custard. When I was younger she put up with my constant chattering and was quick to remind me not to get mad at my son for his constant talking because he was just like me. It warmed my heart when my son met her for the first time. He instantly loved her as much I do. She has touched so many lives, including my son. He loves to put on her country tape and dance and sing around. She was loved so many and was loved by so many. She is in a better place looking down at us all. We will never forget you.

“Patty, or should I say "Paddy," was a very thoughtful person. She was always asking how everyone was, always worried about the well being of others. "Paddy" got her nickname from my little brother, Aaron. She got a kick out my ornery stinker of a brother. She loved her nickname so much that she had it as her license plate on her car. She will always be "Paddy" to us. She often took us to the nursing homes with her when she would sing to the residents. She would let me accompany her with my flute. It always felt like an honor to be able to make music with her when she had such a beautiful voice.

The funniest memory of Paddy taking us to Oakwood was when she had taught my brother Aaron how to sing a few songs, but when she tried to get him to sing there he wouldn't. I told him I would sing if he wasn't going to. He got all mad at me, slapped me, and said "NO Dacia! You don't know the words!" He decided to sing with Paddy, which was difficult for Paddy cause she was laughing so hard.

She sang at my wedding. I was so honored to have her do this for me. I always loved it when she would sing, "Crazy." It was like having Patsy Cline in our home. She started my love for Patsy. She brought me back a Patsy t-shirt when she came back from TN. I actually think I still have it.

I know someday we will hear that beautiful voice singing again. Next time we hear it there will be angels backing her up. I can't wait to hear that miraculous sound. Rest in the arms of our Lord Paddy, until we meet again. Love you!
