

Patricia "Pattie" Maxine Nation

October 20, 1967 - January 9, 2024

Patricia Maxine Nation, age 56, of Albia, passed away on Tuesday, January 9, 2024, at Oakwood Specialty Care Center in Albia.

Pattie was born on October 20, 1967, in Oskaloosa, IA, to James and Barbara (Johnson) Nation. She grew up attending school and graduated from Pella High School. After high school Pattie attended and received her associate degree from DMACC.

Pattie was a very caring and giving person. In her younger years, she worked as a CNA for hospice, driving many extra miles all over the state to assist others, as well as an aide at nursing homes. Later, she worked at the Knoxville Hospital as a receptionist. Lastly, she worked for Wellmark. She was very devoted to her work.

Pattie enjoyed playing bingo and cribbage. She collected all sorts of pigs, from figurines to stuffed animals. She also liked to be outdoors, especially at the beach. South Padre Island along with Jamaica were some of her favorite destinations. She liked spending time with her son and his friends, who she called her "adopted kids". Above all else, Pattie loved her family and cherished all the time she spent with them.

Pattie is survived by her son, Mack; and one sister, Lisa Cooper. She is also survived by several nieces, nephews, cousins, and good friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, and a brother, Kevin Nation.

Pattie's body has been cremated and there are no formal services planned at this time.

Tribute Wall

AT

“ My mom was Pattie's roommate at Oakwood until she passed in December. We always made it a point to chit chat with Pattie for a few minutes each time we visited mom. I think Pattie and my mom would have been good friends had they met before they both had reasons to be at Oakwood. Sending the family thoughts and prayers.

Amanda Toopes - January 11, 2024 at 02:30 AM