

Ralph Cole Webber

February 3, 1921 - May 29, 2013

Ralph Cole Webber, age 92 of Albia, died Wednesday, May 29, 2013, under the care of Monroe County Hospice at Monroe County Hospital in Albia.

Ralph was born February 3, 1921, to Ralph Wallace and Ethel Eva (Thornton) Webber in Liberal, MO. He married Mae Drinkard in Kansas City. They shared 51 years together before she preceded him in death. He later married Norma Smith in July, 1995 in Bella Vista, AR.

A graduate of Liberal High School, Ralph joined the Army and served three and a half years during World War II. He worked many different jobs in Kansas City before moving to Wichita, KS where he worked for Boeing Aircraft. After 35 years, he retired as manager of production engineering for Boeing.

Ralph was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Albia and past member of Bella Vista Christian Church in Bella Vista, AR. He enjoyed fishing and golfing.

Ralph is survived by his wife, Norma Webber of Albia; a sister, Ruth Moore of Belton, MO; a sister-in-law, Fern Webber of Olathe, KS; three stepsons, Marvin (Joan) Vore of Hudson, IA, David (Luann) Vore of Albia, and Michael (Shirley) Vore of Oskaloosa; and several step grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Mae; and two daughters, Patricia and Theresa Webber; a sister, Wilma Blevins; and a brother, Kenneth Glen Webber.

As was Ralph's wishes, his body has been cremated and there are no services planned at this time.

Memorials may be made to Monroe County Hospice; 6580 165th St.; Albia, Iowa 52531.

“ We will miss Ralph, but I believe he has no problems now, and is with his savior Jesus Christ. He was a good man, and we enjoyed playing golf with him. Norma, we are sorry for your loss. May the Lord look after and strengthen you.

“ *Dear Norma
Sorry to hear of Ralph's death. Knowing his condition, he is free of all of his problems, so we rejoice that he is with the Lord.
I do miss seeing you and still enjoy playing bridge with your group as a sub.
We are planning to downsize. We hope to move to a house we own at 7 Dunedin Dr., sometime this Fall.'
We send our love to you and pray those around you are a comfort at this time.
In Christian Love, Carol & Bill Smell*
