“ All-day horse rides, flying down the steepest hill EVER on bicycles, skinning squirrels, tanning snakeskins, rope swings, BB gun battles and rotten apple wars - my childhood would have been pale and lifeless if Bob Major, his beautiful paint Thunder, and his wild cousins hadn't been part of it. I know he'll be missed.

“ Bobby Joe was my neighbor boy and friend. I so remember coming home from St Mary's school and meeting up with Bobby Joe and Janice and Joyce Christy. We had so much fun playing soft ball, scavenger hunts, and just enjoying each other. I was happy to see him at our class reunion but knew he was not in the best of health. My sympathy to the family at this difficult time. Just wanted you to know what a happy part of my childhood he was!

“ My heart is breaking and tears are falling. I was a very shy girl from a small country school when I met Bob. He teased me unmercifully about my red hair! (Imagine that!). I came to love his crazy sense of humor. He became a good friend, one I will never forget and will always have a place in my heart. Rest in peace, good friend.
