“ We are so sorry for your loss, thinking about your entire family, she was quite the lady, will remember her for teaching me about beef and noodles on mashed potatoes, hers being the best.

“ I have many memories of Rosella and the Leisure Lounge. She played a mean game of pitch and skip-bo!
She invited me to her house many times for her pie and to show me the beautiful quilts she had made.
She was one of my 'ladies' and I loved her like a Grandma.

“ I am a member of the Iowa Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. My great grandfather, Henry Purdue served in the Civil War for the North and from Iowa. My regret is I never got to talk to him about his experiences, nor to his wife, or my grandmother, Mable Purdue-Carson. Our family was originally from Chariton, and Woodburn Iowa. I was raised around Cedar Rapids. The only thing I remember was Grandpa Purdue was buried with a civil war small cannon ball in his side. I have an old wind up wall pendulum clock he made after the civil war. It still works and keeps very good time. I hope you were able to listen to Rosella's stories, as they are pure history that can not be found in books. I am sorry for your loss, but knowing your family history must make your proud. Rosella is in my prayers, as is your family to comfort you in the time of your loss.

“ I'm Chester Livengood's Grandson. Aunt Rosella has always been a dear friend to both my Grandparents, and my mom and dad. She has left a legacy that has touched my family deeply. You are in my prayers always.
