“ I was blessed to meet Tom only a month or so ago out at the Albia clinic. He came over and stood near me striking up a conversation. He was so proud of his family. I knew instantly he was a wonderful guy. I could have spent the entire day talking with him. My deepest sympathy goes out to the entire family.

“ John and Annette, Phyllis and Dave: My sincere condolences on the loss of your father. Your father was a fine man and I look back now and see his dry sense of humor. It is great to grow up in a community like Melrose and Albia and know cousin's like the Scieszinski's.

We have your family in our prayers .
