“ Vera always called me little Ruthie, even after I was no longer "little". This was just a term of endearment I enjoyed with her. She would walk over to my mom and dad's on Washington Ave. E. to deliver a birthday, Christmas or even an Easter card for me from time to time. She made me feel pretty special. She had a heart of gold, and was truly a beautiful woman.
I hope Harlan is not having too hard a time with this.
All my love,
Ruth Deyo

“ Vera, I'll really miss having you deliver those fresh country eggs. May you be a "Little Red School House" teacher in heaven as you were here. Say hello to my parents, Keith & Verla Deyo, and all the rest of the families- Chidester, Sinclair, Bates, Felton, Davis, - as we will remember them all in our prayers.
