

Walter Roy Templer

October 10, 1921 - August 4, 2012

Walter Roy Templer, age 90 of Albia, died Saturday, August 4, 2012 at Monroe Care Center in Albia.

Walter was born October 10, 1921 to Cam and Lucy (Sperry-Bruere) Templer in rural Albia. He married Wilma Marie McCoy September 3, 1948 in Empire, CA.

Walter grew up and attended school in rural Albia. He was a lifelong farmer and worked more than 21 years at John Deere Ottumwa Works, retiring in 1981.

Walter was a member of the First Christian Church in Albia. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, and trapping. He won first place in the Novice Hand Corn-husking contest at Living History Farms in 1980. He also won first and second places in the Ruitan Corn-husking contests in Moravia in 1981 and 1982.

Walter is survived by his wife of 63 years, Wilma Templer of Albia; three daughters, Karen Deimerly of Lakeville, MN, Sandra (Gary) Wallace of Hillsboro, MO, and Rebecca Hilleman of Altoona; nine grandchildren; and a great granddaughter.

Walter was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Du Wayne Templer; and an infant daughter, Marjorie Anne.

“ I have such wonderful memories of Walter when my Mother and I visited the Templer farm when I was in lower elementary school. Walter put me up to putting ice down I believe it was his fathers shirt!

Also your visit, Wilma, with Walter, to my home in Rapid City. I love you both!!

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you Wilma and all your family.
