

Wanda Elizabeth McNeil

October 8, 1913 - January 10, 2010

Wanda Elizabeth McNeil, age 96 of Albia passed away Sunday, January 10, 2010, at Oakwood Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Albia.

Wanda was born on October 8, 1913 in Linby, Iowa to James A. and Clarinda (Steele) Linder. She attended and graduated from Batavia High School, class of 1932.

Wanda married Herbert McNeil on October 8, 1936 in Fairfield, Iowa. Wanda and Herbert were blessed with 46 years of marriage before Herbert died on November 26, 1982.

Wanda was active all her life. She was a homemaker, she helped Herbert farm, during WWII she worked at a gas station, and she had been a cook in the Des Moines Schools and the Esther Home for Girls.

In 1978 Wanda and Herbert moved to Albia. While living in Albia she was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church, a member of the Monroe County Hospital and volunteered at the hospital gift shop. She was also a member of the Batavia Order of the Eastern Star.

Wanda was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and one son, Sam McNeil. She is also preceded by one brother Jesse Linder; and eight sisters, Maggie Brown, Sara Fathke, Mary Smith, Alice Sheraden, Nellie Monroe, Clara Morrison, Dora Linder, and Ruth Mowery.

Wanda is survived by her granddaughter, Cara Bluestone of Redwood Falls, MN; and two grandchildren, Brittny Collier and Andrew Wagner; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial has been established to the Monroe County Hospital Auxiliary or to the Trinity united Methodist Church.

“ *Dear family of Wanda,
My mother, Shirley Wright, was a sister-in-law of Wanda. Although mom passed away last summer, she always tried to stay in touch with Wanda. Wanda and Herb were such favorites of hers, and she always had stories of their kindness to her throughout the years.*

My sympathies to all of her family.
